INSTITUTE FOR ENGINEERING RESEARCH AND PUBLICATION

Dear IFERP Member

Welcome to the IFERP newsletter for July 2022. This past month was quite busy with organizing multiple international conferences, webinars, seminars, seed funding initiatives, book chapters, premium membership, journal publications, and institutional collaborations.

IFERP ensures that each event is customized, allowing attendees to select their preferred learning and attendance methods. As a worldwide technical community, we offer the participants a platform where they can embrace the power of interactions, networking, and sustainable development.
